The client hereto agrees as follows:

- 1) Daily Wag and its employees agree to provide services stated in this contract in a reliable and trustworthy manner. In consideration of these services and as an express condition thereof, the client expressly waives any and all claims against daily wag or its employees, unless arising from negligence on the part of Daily Wag.
- 2) The client understands that all pets must have a veterinarian and must be current with all vaccinations. Vaccinations must be given far enough in advance to be effective. We recommend about 2 weeks. We also recommend vaccination against kennel cough, which is very common among boarding facilities. Please bring vaccination record with you during admission or pet(s) will not be admitted.
- 3) The client understands that all pets must be treated with a flea, tick and heartworm preventative.
- 4) The client understands that we will not administer sedatives to your pet -- regardless if they are veterinarian prescribed. If your pet needs this type of medication you need to make arrangements for your pet to be hospitalized with your veterinarian.
- 5) Daily Wag does not diagnose, prognose, or make therapy decisions nor does it offer veterinary services. Any veterinary/medical concerns will be referred to a veterinarian.
- 6) Daily Wag will not sit for acutely ill animals or those with uncontrolled medical conditions. We suggest the pet be boarded with a vet. Certain medical conditions may also be referred to a veterinarian for boarding.
- 7) The client understands that the animals have a play time in which they interact with other animals. The client must express any known problems that the animal has with others pets.
- 8) Daily Wag uses stand alone kennels as well as kennels attached to the wall. I understand that my dog may be housed in a kennel that stands alone. This is a wire kennel that is not attached to the wall.
- 9) Colorado has been experiencing some abnormal bordetella (kennel cough) seasons. Some believe this is k-9 influenza because of the similar symptoms. Although Daily Wag does not accept dogs that are coughing, a cough may start to occur under the duration of the stay. Dogs are then separated into another room. I understand Daily Wag is not responsible if a dog should catch kennel cough during their stay and that any vet bills which occur because of bordetella are not paid for by Daily Wag. I also understand that Daily Wag's cleaning regimen is strictly followed as adhered by the Colorado Association of Doggie Daycares.
- 10) Daily Wag does not provide food.
- 11) Daily Wag does not accept aggressive animals.
- 12) All dogs must be accompanied by a leash or they will not be admitted.
- 13) Daily Wag reserves the right to take pet(s) to vet if necessary. Client is responsible for all applicable charges.
- 14) Daily Wag reserves the right to deny service or terminate service because of safety concerns, financial concerns, or inappropriate or uncomfortable situations.
- 15) Daily Wag is not responsible for the death of a dog if the dog should die of natural causes. In the unforeseen event that a dog should die under Daily Wag's care and the event is caused naturally, the client accepts full responsibility.
- 16) Payment is expected before services are rendered. In the event of additional unforeseen costs (such as food, supplies, or vet fees), payment is expected within 5 days of the completion of services or a late charge of $20 will be applied.
- 17) Cancellations must be received 2 days prior to scheduled boarding day or a $25 cancellation fee will apply. We must be notified within 2 days of an early return or you will be charged for the remaining number of booked days. There will be a $5 fee for every 15 minutes past closing time that you are late to pick up your dog. This will be STRICTLY enforced.
